WEST SUSSEX

Award winning Cowdray is one of England's most important early Tudor courtier's houses, visited by Henry VIII, Edward VI and Elizabeth I. Partially destroyed by fire in 1793, its magnificent ruins are set in the stunning landscaped grounds of Cowdray Park.

Cowdray makes a stunning backdrop for your special day. Hire of this unique and beautiful Tudor building gives you full use of the grounds, with stunning views across the rest of Cowdray Park. A blessing can take place in the historic Chapel or any room you choose. Welcome receptions can be held in our open air courtyard, or under cover in the Wine Cellar or Tudor kitchen. A marquee would host the party itself, with easy access for both organisers and guests alike. Your guests would arrive via the 16th Century iron gates, dedicated solely for your use for the day. Hire includes the opportunity to have unique wedding photos amongst the lovely walls and rooms of the house, and everything can be floodlit after dark. The helpful, friendly staff do everything possible to make your preparations as straightforward as possible. Become one of only a handful of couples who have had the privilege of celebrating here at stunning Cowdray.
