

Chapterhouse Theatre Company
Summer 2010 open-air production of Beauty and the Beast
By Laura Turner

Chapterhouse Theatre Company is delighted to announce that Georgina Sherrington will be appearing in their 2010 open-air summer tour of 'Beauty and the Beast'. Georgina is best known for playing the accident prone heroine Mildred Hubble in the wonderful children's television series, 'The Worst Witch', and she has recently returned to the UK after training in theatre and working in Los Angeles. She now joins Chapterhouse to take the lead role of Louisa, a young 1940's evacuee, who along with her close friends is inspired to create a brand new performance of Beauty and the Beast; a show that will delight children and adults alike as it tours some of the UK's most picturesque country houses, castles and gardens.

“I am incredibly excited to be joining Chapterhouse for their summer tour of 'Beauty and the Beast'. This was one of my favourite stories when I was young and this new adaptation is sure to capture all the magic of the classic fairytale.” (Georgina Sherrington)
www.georginasherrington.com

“I grew up during The Worst Witch era, so it is fantastic to see Georgina move into stage acting with her performance in 'Beauty and the Beast'. Chapterhouse have been touring adaptations of classic fairytales over the past five years, and 'Beauty and the Beast' is a wonderful story that captures all the magic, fun and friendship of a group of children's adventures one hot summer's evening.” (Laura Turner, Scriptwriter.)

'Beauty and the Beast' will be performed at Cowdray House in Midhurst on Thursday 12th August at 7pm, gates open at 6pm for picnics. See www.cowdray.org.uk for more details.